

Classical Greek 2
Prof. David Clark
Credits 3
Email: dclark@bhsec.bard.edu

Spring 2009
TWR 9:55-10:45

Text: M. Balme & G. Lawall, Athenaze: An Introduction to Ancient Greek, Book I, 2nd Edition, Oxford University Press, 2003

Schedule of Assignments

This schedule is tentative. Based on student feedback, it may be revised during the semester.
Assignments include reading passages, vocabulary and exercises for each chapter and section assigned.

Final Grade will be determined in the following manner:

10% Quiz average (quizzes will be given as needed)
40% Test average (a test will be given after every chapter)
20% Midterm exam
25% Final exam

List of Assignments

Assignments include reading passages, vocabulary and exercises for each chapter and section assigned.

- I.-III. Review of Chapters I-VIII; Chapter IX: Present participles; third declension nouns continued
- IV Chapter X: Future tense; irregular verb $\epsilon\iota\lambda\mu\iota$; use of future participle to express purpose
- V. Chapter XI: Aorist tense
- VI. Chapter XII: Aorist continued; aorist participles
- VII. Chapter XIII: Imperfect tense; relative clauses; third declension nouns continued; 1st/3rd declension adjectives with stems in $-\upsilon-$ and $-e-$
- VII. Chapter XIV: Comparison of adjectives; interrogative and indefinite pronouns, adjectives and adverbs
- IX Chapter XV: Athematic 2nd aorists; Third declension continued; contract verbs; 2nd declension contract nouns; use of $\omega\theta\eta$; numbers continued
- X. Chapter XVI: Passive voice; athematic verbs $\delta\upsilon/\nu\alpha\mu\alpha\iota$, $\kappa\epsilon\iota=\mu\alpha\iota$ and $\epsilon\theta\pi\iota/\sigma\tau\alpha\mu\alpha\iota$
- XI. Chapter XVII: Aorist passive and future passive; aorist of deponent verbs
- XII. Chapter XVIII: Athematic verbs $\delta\iota/\delta\omega\mu\iota$ and $\tau\iota/\gamma\eta\mu\iota$
- XIII. Chapter XIX: Genitive absolute; athematic verb $\iota\lambda\sigma\theta\eta\mu\iota$

